Tour des Arts 2022

July 16th to July 24th, from 10 am to 5 pm daily

April 12, 2022 - The Eastern Townships region is home to many skilled artists and craftspeople. For the 33rd year, the Tour des Arts invites you to meet a select number of them directly in their studios. For nine consecutive days, from July 16th to 24th, from 10 am to 5 pm, 39 artists and artisans from the areas around Abercorn, Sutton, West Brome, Brome Lake, West Bolton, East Bolton, Mansonville will open the doors of their creative spaces. This is a unique opportunity to see artists at work, marvel at their skill and discover original art.

The search is over—it's all here

Le Tour des Arts, a collective of handpicked artists, presents an impressive variety of artworks and craft objects. This year, the Tour des Arts is proud to welcome six new members: painters Suzanne Brault, Rasa Pavilanis and Daniel Dufresne, luthier Michel Dufresne, jeweler Savannah Jones and sculptor Marie France Bourbeau.

Stunning countryside

Visiting studios on the Tour des Arts will take you off the beaten path to one of the most beautiful parts of Quebec. Brochure in hand, you can explore the surrounding area on scenic roads as you make your way to the studios. The Tour des Arts brochure will be available at the end of May in all tourist offices and local stores. You can also download it at tourdesarts.com.

Artists at work

If you are intrigued by a particular artist and would like to learn more about their technique or approach, check your brochure for the time of their demo, and find out how it's all done.

The countryside in the evening

The fun doesn't stop at closing time. The Tour des Arts is also about the gastronomic pleasures of the many restaurants in the region, a few evening shows, and the refined hospitality of local B&Bs. Check the brochure for suggestions and follow us on Facebook for the latest news. facebook.com/letourdesarts.

It's your turn to be an artist!

In August, the Sutton School of Art and the Tour des Arts offer free art workshops for parents and children. Join a group and let the artist in you run wild! To register, visit ecoleartsutton.ca.
